Notes for JONAS SMITH:

"Jonas Smith, d. before 30 Apr 1754 when his son Nehemiah Smith, cooper, was named administrator and posted bond. It appears that his lands may have been adjacent to those laid out by the town in his father's right after his death. His given name adds to the evidence supporting a connection with the Wood family. He was a grantor with Jeremiah Smith (preumably his cousin and not his brother by that name) of land to Daniel Wood of Hempstead in 1725, which was their right in the Hempstead property of their grandfather James Smith. Although not stated, it seems that this transfer was made on behalf of all Smith grandchildren by these two representatives of the two families. Since Jonas appears to have acted in this capacity for his branch of the family, his two (presumed) older brothers {James and Jeremiah} may have died or moved away from the Huntington area by that time, or there may have been an error in assigning the birth order here for this family."

Children of JONAS SMITH are:

- i. NEHEMIAH⁵ SMITH, b. Abt. 1718, Huntington, Suffolk Co., LI, NY; d. Abt. 1792, Marlborough, Ulster, New York.
